Sylvie Nguyen

Living in Cherry Valley, Illinois, USA, Sylvie is involved with teaching and a local lace guild. Though having a lifelong interest in fiber arts, bobbin lace was only embraced in recent years. Having taught adults and young adults for many years, bobbin lace became another way to share teaching and bobbin lace making. A variety of lace making materials and applications is most enjoyed, with a preference for making tape laces. Active in demonstrating, designing bobbin lace, and teaching at Sievers School of Fiber Arts on Washington Island, Wisconsin and local Rockford area shops.
