
Susan Wenzel

While living in England with her husband and children, Susan studied and fell in love with lace making. Susan advanced her studies with multiple workshops in Bruges, Belgium and Schoonhoven, Holland, where she developed her experience in 's Gravenmoerse Lace under the guidance of a Dutch teacher. Teaching assignments include many IOL charter chapters as well as several IOL conventions and numerous professional craft shows. Susan has been teaching for 16 years. She owns and operates "Lacy Susan," a retail lace making, tatting and knitted lace business.

